I'd Like To Be A Lighthouse

I'd like to be a lighthouse
All scrubbed and painted white
I'd like to be a lighthouse
And stay awake all night
To keep my eye on everything
That sails my patch of sea;
I'd like to be a lighthouse
With the ships all watching me

I stood in stoic amazement
within the portico of the world, a world I had come to realize
would shortly be past phase.
My once loved playhouse now took on the characteristics of a useless junked old truck and the tree of life now seemed to be withering before my eyes.
How long before the shipwreck
would be washed out to sea?
And would the sea gulls continue their daily jaunt up shore?
I stood in stoic amazement
and wondered if I, too,
would shortly be past phase.

Are you sure he comes this way

"No, doubt about it, it's too short."

"How long will this take?"

"Pssst . . ., who are you voting for?"

"Oh dear, spoiled again."

"How do you like those apples?"

"This is not my day."

"Keep on trucking."

"Lay it on me!"

INTROSPECTION

I remember photographs of people
I have known
within my mind.
Memories, like visions,
of a face once in my life . . .
a hand that once held mine.
I capture with my lens
a smile which makes me smile,
a glance of friendliness.
Although I remember
photographs of people
I have known;
within my mind
I cannot see myself
beyond my own lens.
